

Jacqueline Pace has studied with Lisa-Maree Amos and performed in the masterclasses of international artists such as Wissam Boustany, Paul Edmund-Davies and Leone Buyse. She is a former member of the University of Melbourne Orchestra and Melbourne Youth Orchestra. Jacqueline holds a Master of Music Studies (Performance/Teaching) from the University of Melbourne and was awarded 1st Place at the 2nd Queensland Woodwind and Brass Competition.

In 2012-2013, Jacqueline went on a study trip to the U.K. During this time she took lessons with Clare Southworth and Patricia Morris and attended classes at London-based music colleges.

Since returning to Australia, Jacqueline has appeared as a guest artist with the Monash University Flute Ensemble at the Australian Flute Festival and has been added to the casual list at Orchestra Victoria. She is also a woodwind teacher and volunteers as a content manager at Flute Tutor Australia, which promotes flute playing and flute-related events.
